

The James-Lorah Memorial Home Auditorium is located in the heart of Doylestown Borough. It continues the rich history of the James' family home's reputation as a gathering place for civic, musical and literary functions.

This 2,275 square foot auditorium has a raised stage and a state of the art audio/visual system. The acoustics are excellent for musical performances and/or recording sessions.

The air-conditioned space holds a maximum of 144 people. It is the perfect venue for your next meeting, seminar or social function. Kitchen facilities are available.

The rental of the James-Lorah Memorial Home Auditorium for your next event directly benefits the mission of the Village Improvement Association.

Mission

To enhance the Health & Wellbeing of Central Bucks County and Surrounding Communities

James-Lorah Auditorium

100 Broad Street, Doylestown, PA 18901
(215) 348-2187

To inquire about renting the auditorium please email:

JLMH-PEC@via-doylestown.org
fill out the form at this link:
bit.ly/JLMHrental
or scan this code:

2/2026

James-Lorah Memorial Home Auditorium

... the perfect venue for your next event

The PERFECT venue for so many occasions

- Musical & Dance Recitals
- Theatre Performances
- Meetings & Seminars
- Wedding & Baby Showers
- Memorial Services
- Executive Training
- Business Retreats

Tour our Home

Tours of the adjacent 17-room James-Lorah Memorial Home can be arranged by calling 215.348.2187.

This Victorian style house/museum was bequeathed to the Village Improvement Association in 1954 upon the death of Sarah M. James, a VIA member.

Advanced reservations are required.